General Honorarium Rates for 2010

Heatherlyn and Jason (her husband and partner) always work and travel together. This is their full-life vocation, livelihood and business. The honorarium is their income and living wage. Out of it they pay taxes, health care, other business expenses not included in your direct travel, lodging & food costs and they seek to faithfully give to charity.

Please inquire with your specific requests and program needs for a quote. We always seek to meet the needs of our host.

Additional costs of travel, lodging and food are determined according to each situation.
